Revelation 2:18-29
Week of November 5, 2017

I. Good people, especially young people, are often labeled “naive” if they do not have experiences to which they have moral objections. How do we encourage one another, and especially our youth, to not be concerned about that insult?

II. Read Psalm 2:6-9. What do you make of the similar language used?

III. What principles should guide us in determining how to accommodate our culture? (do Christians always need to wear out-of-date fashions?)

IV. A-Ha's and So-What's
